

GED Preparation and College Readiness

Bevill State has GED classes located at each of its locations and throughout its service area, at various off-campus sites. After completion of the GED, students are awarded one free college course at Bevill State Community College.