

Schedule Changes/Drop And Add

All schedule changes must be made during the official schedule change period. Students may change their schedules by accessing their OneACCS Account. Students receiving financial aid should contact the Office of Student Services if there is a change in total number of credit hours.