

Student Rights And Responsibilities

- The student does not forfeit any constitutional rights upon entrance into the student body of Bevell State Community College.
- By virtue of the student's request for admission into Bevell State Community College (via application), the student agrees to abide by the College's rules, regulations, policies, and Conduct Code.
- The student may have a representative present at any Student Disciplinary Committee hearing for advisement only. The representative will not have the right to cross-examination. The student's refusal to answer questions shall not be construed as admission of guilt.