

BUS 175 : RETAILING

This course is a study of the principles and practices of retailing. Topics include planning, policies and procedures of distribution, store design, layout and location, the economic and social role of retailing, competitive strategies, and retail management.

Credits 3

Lecture Hours 3

Lab Hours 0