

CIS 251 : C++ PROGRAMMING

This course is an introduction to the C++ programming language including object oriented programming. Topics include: problem solving and design; control structures; objects and events; user interface construction; and document and program testing.

Credits 3

Lecture Hours 3

Lab Hours 0